

Minister Jacqueline Barnett

A Devoted Mother and Intercessory Prayer Warrior

Minister Jacqueline Barnett was born on October 5, 1975, in Athens, Georgia, to the late Jackie Barnett and Gail Jones. Affectionately known as “Minister Jackie,” she is a devoted mother to Nicosha Faust and Malcolm Smith, and a proud grandmother to Amariah and Arianah, as well as a loving “bonus” mother and grandmother to Qui and Justice.

She graduated from Clarke-Central High School in 1992 and has over twenty years of experience in food management with the Jackson County School District and the University of Georgia. Her love for children is reflected through her work as a school bus driver, leadership in back-to-school backpack drives, and ongoing involvement in child-focused community initiatives.

In 2014, under the leadership of Bishop Will Stewart, Jr., she accepted Christ at Bethesda Temple Apostolic Faith Church, where she was baptized and filled with the Holy Spirit the same year. She has faithfully served in multiple ministries, was licensed as a Minister of the Gospel in 2015, and is affiliated with Rapture Apostolic Ministry, Inc. (RAM). An intercessory prayer warrior, she stands on Matthew 6:33, believing in seeking first the Kingdom of God.
