

Minister Vanessa Bradford

A Devoted Leader and Spiritual Teacher

Minister Vanessa Bradford is a licensed and ordained minister who has dedicated over 40 years to ministry, including 15 years as a minister. She successfully leads a marriage ministry and officiates weddings. Prior to her ministerial role, she contributed to several church ministries, including spending 20 years in the choir.

With more than 35 years of experience in healthcare, Minister Bradford exemplifies compassion, leadership, and service in both her professional and spiritual life. Additionally, she is a Real Estate Agent committed to assisting individuals and families in establishing stability and legacy. Recently, she earned her Bachelor's degree in Religion, focusing on Christian Leadership.

Minister Bradford has been joyfully married to her husband, James, for 45 years. She is the proud mother of three children and grandmother to six lovely granddaughters. With a passion for empowering women, families, and children, she is devoted to teaching biblical truths and inspiring others to live boldly in faith, purpose, healing, and transformation through Jesus Christ.
